

Raymond L. Gambrill

Raymond L. Gambrill is an Associate in the Litigation Practice Group with a focus on business, commercial and real estate litigation, as well as criminal defense litigation.

Prior to joining Miller, Miller, and Canby, he worked in private practice focusing on landlord-tenant law, and was responsible for the representation of landlords in the review of lease agreements, and the litigation of summary ejectment actions, wrongful detainer actions, tenant hold over actions and breach of lease actions.

Earlier in his career, Mr. Gambrill served as an Assistant State's Attorney for Montgomery County. During his time in the State's Attorney's Office, Mr. Gambrill was a member of the District Court Division. As a member of that division, he successfully litigated numerous criminal and traffic matters. Mr. Gambrill began his legal career as a Judicial Law Clerk for the Honorable John W. Debelius, III in Circuit Court for Montgomery County.

Mr. Gambrill is a member of the Montgomery County Bar Association, the Maryland State Bar Association, the J. Franklyn Bourne Bar Association and the Monumental City Bar Association. He is also a graduate of the Leadership Development Academy of the Montgomery County Bar Association.

Mr. Gambrill holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Hampton University and a Juris Doctor from the University Of Baltimore School Of Law.
