Miller, Miller & Canby Welcomes Attorney Christopher Young to Business and Tax Practice Group

Rockville, MD — June 25, 2018 — Miller, Miller & Canby is pleased to welcome Christopher (Chris) Young to the firm's Business and Tax Practice Group, where he will concentrate his practice in tax law and business law. Mr. Young will work with business clients and individuals to resolve tax disputes with the Internal Revenue Service and state agencies. He will work with corporate clients on issues related to corporate disputes, governance, formations and restructurings, as well as drafting and reviewing corporate documents such as contracts and purchase agreements, operating agreements and partnership agreements. He will also advise clients on matters related to foreign financial accounting reporting and compliance.

"Miller, Miller & Canby's business and tax practice has a long-standing commitment of service in our community," said Miller, Miller & Canby Managing Shareholder Robert Gough. "During the course of our more than seventy-year history, we have served multiple generations of families and family-owned businesses. The addition of Chris, with his breadth of knowledge of both federal and state tax law, will help us continue that tradition in Montgomery County and throughout the Metropolitan Washington, D.C. area."

Prior to joining Miller, Miller & Canby, Mr. Young was an Associate at JDKatz, P.C., where he focused his practice in tax controversies and issues related to corporate disputes. He began his career as a State Tax Law Editor at Bloomberg BNA. While in law school, he worked as a law clerk with the U.S. Department of Justice, Tax Division, in the Financial Litigation Unit. There, he drafted legal documents and investigated and uncovered taxpayer assets to facilitate collection efforts. For his achievements, was honored with a special commendation for his work on Fidelity International v. United States and Fidelity High Tech v. United States.

Mr. Roth is admitted to practice law in the states of Maryland and Virginia. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in History from Virginia Tech, and earned his Juris Doctorate from The Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law.

ABOUT MILLER, MILLER & CANBY

In 2016, Miller, Miller & Canby celebrated 70 years of serving the legal needs of metropolitan Washington, DC. As the oldest law firm in Montgomery County, MD, the firm recognizes that this milestone reflects the relationships built and maintained with our clients, friends and the business community, many spanning multiple generations. The firm maintains its focus on its core areas of practice: Land Development, Real Estate, Eminent Domain, Tax Appeals, Litigation, Business and Tax, and Trusts, Estates and Elder Law. The firm's moderate size allows its attorneys to maintain close contact with clients and have the opportunity to develop and foster trusted, lasting relationships. In all of our practice areas, an overarching concern for quality of product and efficiency of accomplishment assures clients that we strive for true value in legal representation. Miller, Miller & Canby is proud to have maintained this standard of service since the firm's founding in 1946. For more information, visit www.millermillercanby.com.
