

MD Appellate Blog: Seventeen Apply for At-Large Vacancy on the Court of Special Appeals

Posted At : December 17, 2019 7:59 PM | Posted By : Nancy C

Related Categories: Litigation, MM&C Happenings

Miller, Miller & Canby litigation attorney, Diane Feuerherd, authored a recent Maryland Appellate Blog which introduced the seventeen applicants for the open at-large seat on the Court of Special Appeals based on the forthcoming retirement of Judge Alexander Wright, Jr.

Click here to read the full blog article.

In December 2017, Ms. Feuerherd joined the Maryland State Bar Association's Maryland Appellate Blog as its Blog Manager. Founded in 2013, the Maryland Appellate Blog is sponsored by the MSBA Litigation Section, and is dedicated to disseminating information about appellate practice and appellate law. The blog covers news from Maryland's Court of Appeals and Court of Special Appeals, as well as the U.S. Supreme Court and U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit. It features commentary from a number of contributors and guest authors, including coverage of notable arguments, practice tips, commentary on implications of specific rulings or trends, and interviews with appellate judges.

Diane Feuerherd is an associate in Miller, Miller & Canby's Litigation Practice Group and focuses her practice in appellate, commercial and business litigation. She has successfully represented individuals, property owners, and businesses in a variety of matters ranging from administrative hearings before the Board of Appeals of Montgomery County, to trials in state and federal courts, and to appeals before the Court of Special Appeals and Court of Appeals. She may be reached at 301-762-5212.