Miller, Miller & Canby is pleased to announce that attorney Diane Feuerherd has been named Principal of the firm.

Feuerherd is an attorney in the Litigation practice group and focuses in appellate, business and real estate litigation. She joined the firm in 2013 after serving for two years as an appellate law clerk to the Honorable Lynne A. Battaglia of the Court of Appeals of Maryland.

She has been named a Rising Star by Super Lawyers every year since 2016, a Best Lawyers in America® “One to Watch” and a Daily Record “VIP” for 2020.

In addition to her work she is active in state and local bar associations, serving as co-chair of the Maryland State Bar Association’s Judicial Appointments Committee, Blog Manager of the Maryland Appellate Blog, Board Member of the Maryland Bar Foundation and a past Fellow of the MSBA’s prestigious Leadership Academy.

“We are very pleased to make this announcement for this well-deserved recognition for Diane,” said firm partner Donna McBride. “Diane is a valued member of our litigation practice and this promotion is indicative of her great leadership, skills and dedication to serving our clients.”

Feuerherd graduated summa cum laude from the University of Baltimore School of Law, and received her B.S. in International Business from the University of Maryland.
