Miller, Miller & Canby is pleased to announce attorney Diane Feuerherd has been named to the Daily Record VIP list for 2020. The VIP list recognizes leaders in the State of Maryland based on their professional accomplishments, community service and a commitment to inspiring change. Honorees are 40 years old or younger. They are selected by an outside panel of judges, which includes previous winners and business leaders.

"We are extremely proud to announce this well-deserved honor for Diane, who has been an instrumental part of our firm since she joined us in 2013," said Managing Principal Robert Gough.

Added senior Principal Donna McBride, "Diane makes a tremendous positive impact here for our clients, and also in the broader legal community through her many volunteer and leadership roles. She has accomplished a great deal in a short period of time, and we look forward to continuing to celebrate her achievements as she advances in her career."

Diane Feuerherd is an attorney in Miller, Miller & Canby's Litigation practice with focuses in appellate, business and real estate litigation. She joined the firm after serving for two years as an appellate law clerk to the Honorable Lynne A. Battaglia of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, the State's highest court. She has successfully represented individuals, property owners, and businesses in a wide variety of matters, ranging from administrative hearings before the Board of Appeals, to jury and bench trials in state and federal courts, and to appeals before the Court of Special Appeals and Court of Appeals.

In addition to her work, she is active in state and local bar associations. She serves as co-chair of the Maryland State Bar Association's Judicial Appointments Committee, Blog Manager of the Maryland Appellate Blog, Board Member of the Maryland Bar Foundation and a past Fellow of the MSBA's prestigious Leadership Academy.

"This year's VIP List honorees are an impressive group of young professionals with a strong work ethic and a drive to succeed," said Suzanne Fischer-Huettner, group publisher of The Daily Record. "They are making significant contributions to their professions and to improving their communities. The Daily Record is pleased to honor them."
