

Governor Hogan's Budget Includes the Purple and Red Line Projects

Posted At : January 22, 2015 8:10 PM | Posted By : Nancy C

Related Categories: Eminent Domain and Condemnation, Litigation, Real Estate, Press, Purple Line Project

Governor Hogan briefed legislators on his budget today. He stated that money to keep the two projects moving forward is included in his budget, but the extent of the funding was not announced. His formal budget will be released tomorrow. To keep the projects on schedule pending a final decision it is likely that the necessary acquisition of real property will continue. We will learn more over the next several days as the budget details and continuation of the Purple and Red Line Projects are fleshed out.

The eminent domain attorneys at Miller, Miller & Canby will review any offer made by the State without charge to determine whether we believe you may be entitled to greater compensation than has been offered by the State. If you are interested in a no obligation review of your case, or if you have any questions about your rights or the condemnation process, please call our office at 301-762-5212 and ask to speak with one of our eminent domain attorneys, Jim Thompson or Joe Suntum. To learn more about our eminent domain and condemnation law practice and representative cases, click here.