Miller, Miller & Canby's Michael Campbell has begun a one-year term as President of the Montgomery County Inn of the American Inns of Court. The American Inns of Court is a national association of lawyers, judges and other legal professionals who share a passion for legal excellence. The mission of the organization is to "inspire the legal community to advance the rule of law by achieving the highest level of professionalism through example, education and mentoring."

"I am honored to assume this role for the coming year, and look forward to continuing to work with my colleagues and our legal community, furthering the mission of the American Inns of Court," said Mr. Campbell.

Through monthly meetings, the Inn hosts a dinner followed by a presentation, demonstration or guest speaker. In this collegial environment, outside the courtroom and pressure of daily practice, members discuss legal practice, principals and methods and provide mentorship to new lawyers. The Montgomery County Inn of Court boasts 136 active members. Its meeting in September will feature Maryland Attorney General Brian Frosh.

Mr. Campbell is a partner in Miller, Miller & Canby's litigation group, with a practice that is diverse and extensive. He focuses his practice on real estate and construction disputes in state and federal courts in Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia and before arbitration panels. He handles cases relating to commercial and residential construction projects, property and lease disputes, property tax appeals, and other commercial matters.
